Catalog Description:

Geographical study of systematic topics or issues. May be repeated for credit when topics vary (up to 12 credits). ~~Content varies; determined by instructor.~~

Justification:

What: Changing title

Why: Currently 3 of our 'topics' courses have different names (special, select, and selected). This will put them all as "Special Topics" courses. As well, it is more apt that this is Geography, not GGS (as we are not putting classes here for geoinformation; those are for GGS 470)

What: Changing description

Why: Was vague; wanted to add a bit more detail to help students

What: Adding "May be repeated for credit when topics vary." to description.

Why: Saw a new CHEM special topics course use this in the description. We believe it will help students understand that they can take a course like this when content varies. Adding the credits clause to let students know how many credits are allowed overall in this course.
